APPROVED BY THE TEXAS REAL ESTATE COMMISSION (TREC)

LANDLORD'S FLOODPLAIN AND FLOOD NOTICE

NOTICE: For Use With a Residential Lease, Including a Temporary Residential Lease

EQUAL HOUSING OPPORTUNITY

CONCERNING THE PROPERTY AT: 216 Redan St, 2, Houston, TX 77009
(Street Address and City)

A. Landlord ☐ is ☑ is not aware that the dwelling you are renting is located in a 100-year floodplain. If neither box is checked, you should assume the Property is in a 100-year floodplain. Even if the dwelling is not in a 100-year floodplain, the dwelling may still be susceptible to flooding. The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) maintains a flood map on its Internet website that is searchable by address, at no cost, to determine if a dwelling is located in a flood hazard area. Most tenant insurance policies do not cover damages or loss incurred in a flood. You should seek insurance coverage that would cover losses caused by a flood.

B. Landlord ☐ is ☑ is not aware that the dwelling you are renting has flooded at least once within the last five years.

C. For purposes of this notice:

(1) "100-year floodplain" means any area of land designated as a flood hazard area with a one percent or greater chance of flooding each year by the Federal Emergency Management Agency under the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968 (42 U.S.C. Section 4001 et seq.).

(2) "Flooding" means a general or temporary condition of partial or complete inundation of a dwelling caused by:
(a) the overflow of inland or tidal waters;
(b) the unusual and rapid accumulation of runoff or surface waters from any established water source such as a river, stream, or drainage ditch; or
(c) excessive rainfall.

(3) "Dwelling" means one or more rooms rented for use as a permanent residence under a single lease to one or more tenants.
