

Note from the Sellers:

One of the things we love most about this home is the amazing neighbors. Kind, considerate, helpful and looking out for one another. Kids running lemonade stands all summer, riding bikes down the block, and young families & grandparents walking babies around in strollers. The best kind of intergenerational neighborhood with small town vibes. The little store outside the neighborhood is run by Raj- who will make sure to keep your favorites in stock and ask after your folks. The high school games & homecoming events are enjoyed by the whole neighborhood. The pool & park are filled with families all season. And in the back part of the neighborhood, there's a longer trail for runners/walkers to get outside while still close to home. It's the sweetest house and I will be forever grateful to have been able to bring my babies home here. I would take it with me if I could, but I know another family will love this house like we do.
