

a note from the seller...

When we first walked into this home, we immediately fell in love with the size and layout. The spacious living areas and natural flow made it feel comfortable for everyday living while still being perfect for gatherings with family and friends. It stood out to us as a strong opportunity in the area, offering generous square footage and solid value compared to many homes nearby.

As a family, creating a comfortable and welcoming space has always been important to us. This home has been part of our journey, a place where we focused on stability, growth, and building toward long term goals. The neighborhood has a mix of long term residents and newer homeowners, and you can truly feel the steady growth happening in the area. With convenient access to 290 and 610, commuting is simple while still enjoying more space and value than many newer developments in Houston.

We are entering a new season of life and simplifying as we align our investments with our long term plans. While it is time for us to move forward, we are confident this home is positioned to serve its next owners well. With the major systems already updated and the strong foundation in place, it offers both peace of mind and opportunity.

We hope this home provides you with comfort, stability, and the same sense of forward momentum it gave us.

Raquel Lopez

