

EXPRESSION CUSTOM HOMES

For over three decades, Glenn and Cara Kimberling have been redefining luxury living in the Cypress Area with their exceptional craftsmanship and innovative designs. From humble beginnings to multi-state success, they have built a business model that is highly successful and is now creating new opportunities. As seasoned experts with over 40 years of unparalleled customer service, the Kimberlings have cultivated a reputation for creating lifestyle living with Expression Custom Pool Designs. Their vision embodies modern sophistication and elegance where family and friends want to naturally gravitate.

Cara Kimberling, the visionary designer behind each project, combines modern aesthetics with functional spaces, ensuring every detail is meticulously crafted to reflect the unique style and discerning tastes of their elite clientele. Glenn Kimberling has curated repeat clients with his attention to detail, quality craftsmanship and unmatched customer satisfaction. Using only the highest quality materials and an eye for delivering above expectations, the Kimberlings most exciting business model is a testament to their dedication to excellence and their deep-rooted commitment to the community they proudly call home.

For those who cherish exclusivity and bespoke stylish living, a Kimberling home is the epitome of luxury and elegance. Ideal for those who appreciate distinctive design and flawless attention to detail, they seek to provide an unparalleled living experience. Each house is thoughtfully designed to accommodate the unique lifestyles of their owners, from spacious entertainment areas perfect for hosting gatherings to pet-friendly spaces that treat furry family members with the same level of care.

Whether embarking on global adventures or choosing to live always on vacation, homeowners will find solace and splendor in a Kimberling home—a sanctuary where every moment is a unique experience, and every corner tells a story of refined taste and unwavering quality.
