WHAT I LOVE ABOUT MY HOME

- Located in the established Windrose community with convenient access to H-E-B, Walmart, and Highway 99
- Backyard positioned along the 12th hole with no rear neighbors, offering privacy while still enjoying golf course views—set back from the cart path for added quiet
- Private pool creates a relaxing, resort-like outdoor space ideal for both everyday use and entertaining
- Open-concept floor plan provides a seamless flow between living spaces, enhancing both functionality and natural light
- Dedicated home office with a front-facing window, offering a pleasant workspace with views of the neighborhood and local wildlife
- Upstairs TV room serves as a comfortable and private retreat for guests or additional living space
- Converted third-car garage adds valuable flexibility, with space for an additional refrigerator and extended storage
- Elevated positioning along the course allows for watching golfers from a comfortable distance without compromising privacy
- Updated kitchen designed for cooking and entertaining, well-suited for preparing elevated, gourmet meals
