Such spaces are allocated and assigned by the Declarant to the respective condominium units as indicated on said Exhibit "A", the patios assigned to each apartment unit being designated by the apartment unit number preceded by the letter "P" and in a like manner the garage assigned to each apartment unit being designated by the apartment unit number preceded by the letter "G". In like manner, heating and air conditioning systems serving only one condominium unit shall be limited common elements. Such limited common elements shall be used in connection with the particular apartment unit, to the exclusion of the use thereof by the other owners except by invitation.

5. Each apartment and its undivided interest in and to the general common elements appurtenant thereto shall be inseparable and may be conveyed, leased or encumbered only as a condominium unit.

6. Every deed, lease, mortgage, trust deed or other instrument may legally describe a condominium unit by its identifying apartment number and building symbol or designation as shown on the map, followed by the words, "MARSHALL PLACE TOWNHOUSES, SECTION FIVE and by reference to this recorded Declaration and Map. Every such description shall be deemed good and sufficient for all purposes to convey, transfer, encumber or otherwise affect the general common elements.

7. Declarant shall give written notice to the tax assessors of the creation of condominium ownership of this property, as is provided by law, so that each apartment unit and its percentage of undivided interest in the general common elements shall be deemed a separate parcel and subject to separate assessment and taxation.

8. A condominium unit may be held and owned by more than one person as joint tenants, or as tenants in common, or in any real property tenancy relationship recognized under the laws of the State of Texas.

9. The general common elements shall be owned in common by all of the owners of the apartment units and shall remain undivided and no owner shall bring any action for partition or division of the general common elements. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as a limitation of the right of partition of a condominium unit between the owners thereof, but such partition shall not affect any other condominium unit.

10. Each owner shall be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of his apartment. Each owner may use the general common elements in accordance with the purpose for which they are intended, without hindering or encroaching upon the lawful rights of the other owners.

11. Each apartment shall be occupied and used by the owner only as and for a single family residential dwelling for the owner, his family, his social guests or his tenants.

12. If any portion of the general common elements encroaches upon an apartment unit or units, a valid easement for the encroachment and for the maintenance of same, so long as it stands, shall and does exist. If any portion of an adjoining apartment unit or units encroaches upon any portion of the general common elements, a valid easement for the encroachment and for the maintenance of same, so long as it stands, shall and does exist. For title or other purposes, such encroachment(s) and easement(s) shall not be considered or determined to be encumbrances either on the general common elements or the apartment units.

13. Subsequent to the completion of the improvements described on the map, no labor performed or materials furnished and incorporated in an apartment unit with the consent or at the request of the owner thereof, or his agent or his contractor, or subcontractor, shall be the basis for filing of a lien against the general common elements owned by such other owners. Each owner shall indemnify and hold harmless each of the other owners from and against all liability arising from the claim of any lien against the apartment unit of any other owner, or against the general common elements for construction performed, or for labor, materials, services or other products incorporated in the owner's apartment unit at such owner's request.

14. The administration of this condominium property shall be governed by By-Laws of the non-profit association, hereinafter named and hereinafter referred to as the "Association." A copy of such "By-Laws" is hereto attached in Exhibit B hereof, which Exhibit B is incorporated herein by reference; and shall be deemed adopted by Declarant as sole owner of the property herein described, and all owners shall be bound thereby. Declarant may, at its election, cease to be formed a Texas non-profit corporation bearing said name, in which event such non-profit corporation shall be composed of owners of condominium units as herein set out, and such non-profit corporation shall thereafter act and do things to be done by "Association," and the said non-profit corporation, if formed, shall be bound by, adopt and observe as its By-Laws, the said By-Laws hereto attached. "Association" as here used shall refer to the member owners as a group, both before and after incorporation. In the event of incorporation, a certified copy of the Certificate of Incorporation of such "Association" shall be recorded and which shall provide that three persons shall act as a Board of Managers and shall serve as the Managers until their successors have been elected and qualified. An owner of a condominium unit, upon becoming an owner, shall be a member of the "Association" and shall remain a member for the period of his ownership. The Managing Agent shall be Declarant or whatever person or entity to whom Declarant for purposes of resale may convey all its apartment units in this regime which at the time of such conveyance it has not sold to owner occupants, and the Managing Agent shall perform all of the duties of the Board of Managers until one year after the execution hereof, unless all of the units in this regime are leased or sold prior to the end of such year at which earlier time Declarant shall have the option to cease being such Managing Agent.

15. The owners shall have the irrevocable right, to be exercised by the Managing Agent, or Board of Managers of the Association, to have access to each apartment unit from time to time during reasonable hours as may be necessary for the maintenance, repair or replacement of any of the general common elements therein or accessible therefrom, or for making emergency repairs therein necessary to prevent damage to the general or limited common elements or to another apartment unit or units.

16. An owner shall maintain and keep in repair the interior of his own apartment, including the fixtures thereon. An owner shall also maintain all electric lines, wires, conduits or systems and the heating and air conditioning system serving his apartment unit, whether within or without same. An owner shall also maintain all the plumbing serving his apartment unit, and maintenance of sewer lines serving more than one apartment unit, and running from the end of an apartment unit's single sewer line to the point where such sewer line becomes the property of the City of Beaumont shall be "common expenses".

17. An owner shall do no act nor any work that will impair the structural soundness or integrity of the building or impair any easement or hereditament. No owner shall in any way alter, modify, add to or otherwise perform any work whatever upon any of the common elements, save with written consent of the Board of Managers first obtained.

18. An owner shall not be deemed to own the undecorated and/or unfinished surfaces of the perimeter walls, ground floor and roof surrounding his apartment unit, nor shall such owner be deemed to own the utilities running through his apartment unit which are utilized for or serve more than one apartment unit, except as a tenant in common. An owner, however, shall be deemed to own and shall maintain the inner decorated and/or finished surfaces of the perimeter and interior walls, floors, ceilings, doors, windows and such other elements consisting of paint, wall paper and other such finishing materials.

19. Each owner shall comply strictly with the provisions of this Declaration, the By-Laws and the decisions and resolutions of the "Association" adopted pursuant thereto as the same may be lawfully amended from time to time. Failure to comply with any of the same shall be grounds for an action to recover sums due for damages or injunctive relief or both, maintainable by the Managing Agent or Board of Managers on behalf of the owners or, in a proper case, by an aggrieved owner.

20. This Declaration shall not be revoked, nor shall any of the provisions herein be amended unless all of the owners of Condominium Units, and all of the holders of any recorded mortgages or Deeds of Trust covering or affecting any or all condominium units unanimously consent and agree to such revocation or amendments by instrument(s) duly recorded.

21. The assessments made shall be based upon the cash requirements deemed to be such aggregate sum as the Managing Agent or Board of Managers of the Association shall from time to time determine is to be paid by all of the owners, including Declarant, to provide for the payment of all estimated "common" expenses" as that phrase is defined above growing out of or connected with the maintenance and the operation of the general common elements, which sum may include, among other things, cost of management, taxes, assessments, insurance contracts purchased pursuant to the terms hereof insuring the buildings and the owners thereof and their mortgagees against such risks as may be insured against under the terms hereof, landscaping and care of grounds, common lighting, repairs, and renovations, garbage collections wages, water charges, legal and accounting fees, management fees, expenses and liabilities incurred by the Managing Agent or Board of Managers under or by reason of this Declaration, the payment of any deficit remaining from a previous period, the creation of a reasonable contingency or other reserve or surplus funds as well as other costs and expenses relating to the general common elements. The omission or failure of the Board to fix the assessment for any month shall not be deemed a waiver, modification or a release of the owners from the obligation to pay.

The Managing Agent or Board of Managers shall obtain and maintain insurance of the type and kind required by a majority of the unit owners, issued by a responsible insurance company authorized to do business in the State of Texas or by more than one responsible insurance company authorized to do business in the State of Texas should the same not be available for purchase from one such company and such insurance may be written in the name of the Managing Agent or in the name of the Board of Managers, as Trustee or Trustees for each apartment owner and each apartment owner's mortgagee, if any, or it may be written in such other names as a majority of the unit owners may direct. Such insurance shall not prejudice the rights of each owner to insure his apartment on his own account and for his own benefit. The "Association" may also be named in such insurance policy or policies as insureds if required by the insuring company or companies. Such insurance shall provide for a standard, non-contributory mortgagee clause in favor of each first mortgagee. It shall also provide that it cannot be cancelled by either the insured or the insurance company until after ten days prior written notice to each first mortgagee. Said Managing Agent or Board of Managers shall, upon request of any first mortgagee, furnish a certified copy of such policy and the separate certificate identifying the interest of the mortgagor. All policies of insurance shall provide that the insurance thereunder shall be invalidated or suspended only in respect to the interest of any particular owner guilty of a breach of warranty, act, omission, negligence or non-compliance of any provision of such policy, including payment of the insurance premium applicable to that owner's interest, or who permits or fails to prevent the happening of any event, whether occurring before or after a loss, which under the provisions of such policy would otherwise invalidate or suspend the entire policy, but the insurance under such policy, as to the interests of all other insured owners not guilty of any such act or omission, shall not be invalidated or suspended and shall remain in full force and effect. Determination of maximum replacement value of all condominium units (for insurance purposes) shall be made annually by one or more written appraisals, copies of which shall be furnished forthwith to each mortgagee of a condominium unit. In addition, each owner shall be notified of such appraisal(s).

22. All owners shall be obligated to pay the estimated assessments imposed by the Board of Managers or Managing Agent of the Association to meet the common expenses and by acceptance of a deed for a unit whether expressly stated in such deed or not, shall be deemed to consent and agree to pay to the Association of Unit Owners the assessments provided for herein. Except for insurance premiums, the assessments shall be made basically pro rata according to each owner's percentage interest in and to the general common elements, but not necessarily in such exact proportion if the Board of Managers deem such improper or unfair. Assessments for insurance premiums shall be based upon the proportion of the total premium(s) that the insurance carried on a condominium unit bears to total coverage. Assessments for the estimated common expenses, including insurance, shall be due monthly in advance on or before the fifth day of each month. Failure to pay by the fifteenth day of each month shall require the imposition and assessment of a late charge of $5.00. The Managing Agent or Board of Managers shall prepare and deliver, or mail, regularly at least every three months to each owner an itemized statement showing the various estimated or actual expenses for which the assessments are made.

Declarant shall not be liable for assessments prior to the sale or lease of all units.

Contribution for monthly assessments shall be prorated if the ownership of a condominium unit commences on a day other than on the first day of the month.

23. No owner may exempt himself from liability for his contribution towards the common expenses by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any of the general or common elements or by abandonment of his apartment.

24. All sums assessed but unpaid for the share of common expenses chargeable to any condominium unit, including interest thereon at ten percent per annum, shall constitute a lien on such unit superior (prior) to all other liens and encumbrances, except only for:

- (a) Tax and Special assessment liens in favor of any assessing unit, and
- (b) All sums unpaid on a first mortgage or first deed of trust of record, including all unpaid obligatory sums as may be provided by such encumbrances, and including additional advances made thereon prior to the arising of such a lien.

To evidence such lien the Board of Managers or Managing Agent may, but shall not be required to, prepare a written notice setting forth the amount of such unpaid indebtedness, the name of the owner of the condominium unit and a description of the condominium unit. Such a notice shall be signed by one of the Board of Managers or by the Managing Agent and may be recorded in the office of the Clerk and Recorder of Jefferson County, Texas. Such lien for the common expenses shall attach from the date of the failure of payment of the assessment.

Such lien may be enforced by foreclosure of the defaulting owner's condominium unit by the Association in like manner as a mortgage on real property upon the recording of a notice or claim thereof. In any such foreclosure, the owner shall be required to pay the costs and expenses of such proceedings, the costs and expenses for filing the notice or claim of lien and all reasonable attorney's fees. The owner shall also be required to pay to the Association a reasonable rental for the condominium unit during the period of foreclosure, and the Association shall be entitled to a receiver to collect the same. The Association shall have the power to bid in the condominium unit at foreclosure sale and to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage and convey same.

To secure and enforce the payment of said assessments, and for the auxiliary and cumulative enforcement of said lien hereinabove created, Declarant has granted, sold and conveyed and by these presents does grant, sell and convey unto Morris Beck, Trustee, of Jefferson County, Texas, and his substitute or successors, each of the hereinbefore described condominium units. To have and to hold the said premises, together with the rights, privileges and appurtenances unto the said Trustee, and to his substitutes or successors forever. And Declarant does hereby bind itself, its successors and assigns, to warrant and forever defend the said premises unto the said Trustee, his substitutes, successors and assigns forever, against the claim or claims of all persons claiming or to claim the same, or any part thereof, for and upon the following trusts, terms, covenants and agreements, to-wit:

Declarant, its successors and assigns may hereafter become justly indebted to the Association for the hereinbefore mentioned assessments and should Declarant, its successors and assigns do and perform all of the covenants and agreements herein contained and make prompt payment of the assessments hereby secured as the same shall become due and payable, then this conveyance shall become null and void and of no further force and effect; but in the event of default in the payment of any assessment hereby secured, in accordance with the terms hereof it shall thereupon, or any time thereafter, be the duty of the Trustee, or his successor or substitute, at the request of the Association (which request is hereby conclusively presumed) to enforce this trust and make sale of the condominium unit against which the assessment is made, as provided in Article 3810, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas 1925, after notice as provided in said Article (but without any other notice than is required by said Article 3810), and make due conveyance to the purchaser or purchasers, with general warranty binding the Declarant, its successors and assigns; and out of the money arising from such sale, the Trustee acting shall first pay all expenses of advertising said sale and making the conveyance, and then to the Association the full amount of assessments owing, interest thereon, and reasonable attorney's fees, rendering the balance of the sales price, if any, to the owner of such unit prior to such sale, his heirs or assigns; and the recitals in the conveyance to said purchaser or purchasers shall be full and conclusive evidence of the truth of the matters therein stated, and all prerequisites to said sale shall be presumed to have been performed and such sale and conveyance shall be conclusive against the owner of such unit prior to such sale, his heirs and assigns.

In case of the absence, resignation, death, inability, failure or refusal of the Trustee herein named or of any substitute Trustee appointed hereunder to act, or in the event the Association shall deem it desirable to remove without cause the Trustee or any substitute Trustee and appoint another to execute this trust, then in any of such events the Association shall have the right and is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint a successor and substitute without any formality other than an appointment and designation in writing; and this appointment shall vest in him, as Trustee, the estate and title in and to all said units and he shall thereupon hold, possess and execute all the rights, title, powers and duties herein conferred upon the Trustee named herein; and the right to appoint a successor or substitute Trustee shall exist as often and whenever from any of said causes any Trustee, original or substitute, cannot or will not act, or has been removed without cause. The exercise or attempted exercise of the power of sale herein contained shall not exhaust said power of sale and shall not prevent any subsequent exercise thereof.

It is especially agreed that, in the event of a foreclosure under the powers granted herein, the person in possession of the unit sold shall thereupon become the tenant-at-will of the purchaser at such foreclosure sale, and should such tenant refuse to surrender possession of said unit upon demand, the purchaser shall thereupon at his or her option, be entitled to institute and maintain the statutory action for forcible detainer and procure a writ of possession thereunder. This possession shall in no wise preclude the purchaser from bringing any other legal action for the possession of said unit and the bringing of one character of action shall not preclude the other and same may be exercised separately or simultaneously.

The amount of the common expenses assessed against each condominium unit shall also be a debt of the owner thereof at the time the assessment is made. Suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid common expenses shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing same.

Any encumbrancer holding a lien on a condominium unit may pay any unpaid common expense payable with respect to such unit, and upon such payment such encumbrancer shall have a lien on such unit for the amounts paid of the same rank as the lien of his encumbrance.

25. Upon the written request of any owner or any encumbrancer or prospective encumbrancer of a condominium unit, the Association, by its Managing Agent or Board of Managers, shall issue a written statement setting forth the unpaid common expenses, if any, with respect to the subject unit, the amount of the current monthly assessment and the date that such assessment becomes due, credit for advanced payments or for prepaid items, including but not limited to insurance premiums, which shall be conclusive upon the Association in favor of all persons who rely thereon in good faith. Unless such request for a statement of indebtedness shall be complied with within ten days, all unpaid common expenses which become due prior to the date of making of such request shall be subordinate to the lien of the person requesting such statement.

The Grantee of a unit shall be jointly and severally liable with the Grantor for all unpaid assessments against the latter for his proportionate share of the common expenses up to the time of the grant or conveyance, without prejudice to the Grantee's right to recover from the Grantor the amounts paid by the Grantee therefor; provided, however, that upon written request, any such prospective Grantee shall be entitled to a statement from the Managing Agent or Board of Managers, setting forth the amount of the unpaid assessments, if any, with respect to the subject unit, the amount of the current monthly assessment and the date that such assessment becomes due, credit for advance payments or for prepaid items, including but not limited to insurance premiums, which shall be conclusive upon the Association. Unless such request for a statement of indebtedness shall be complied with within ten days of such request, then such Grantee shall not be liable for, nor shall the unit conveyed be subject to a lien for, any unpaid assessments against the subject unit.

Upon the sale or conveyance of an apartment, all assessments against a co-owner for his prorata share in the expenses as herein described and levied shall first be paid out of the sales price, or by the purchaser, in preference over any other assessments or charges of whatever nature except the following:

(a) Assessments, liens and charges in favor of the State and any political subdivision thereof for taxes past due and unpaid on the apartment; and

(b) Amounts due under first mortgage instruments duly recorded.

26. Any owner shall have the right from time to time to mortgage or encumber his interest by deed of trust, mortgage or other security instrument. A first mortgage shall be one which has first and paramount priority under applicable law. The owner of a condominium unit may create a second mortgage on the following conditions: (1) That any such second mortgage shall always be subordinate to all of the terms, conditions, covenants, restrictions, uses, limitations, obligations, lien for common expenses, and other payments created by this Declaration and by the By-Laws; (2) That the mortgagee under any second mortgage shall release, for the purpose of restoration of any improvements upon the mortgaged premises, all of his right, title and interest in and to the proceeds under all insurance policies upon said premises, which insurance policies were effected and placed upon the mortgaged premises by the Association. Such release shall be furnished forthwith by a second mortgagee upon written request to the Association.

27. In the event any owner of a condominium unit shall wish to sell, lease or rent the same, and shall have received a bona fide offer therefor from a prospective purchaser or tenant, the remaining owners shall be given written notice thereof, together with an executed copy of such offer and the terms thereof. Such notice and copy shall be given to the Board of Managers for all of the owners. The remaining owners through the Board of Managers, or a person named by them, shall have the right to purchase or lease or rent the subject apartment upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in the offer therefor, provided written notice of such election to purchase or lease is given to the selling or leasing owner, and a matching down payment or deposit is provided to the selling or leasing owner during the ten-day period immediately following the delivery of the notice of the bonafide offer and copy thereof to purchase or lease.

In the event any owner shall attempt to sell, rent, or lease his condominium unit without affording to the other owners the right of first refusal herein provided, such sale or lease shall be wholly null and void and shall confer no title or interest whatsoever upon the intended purchaser or lessee. Possession of or residence in a condominium unit by any other person than the record owners, their lineal descendants or relatives of their lineal descendants, continuing for a period of ten (10) days, shall be deemed, for this purpose, to constitute a leasing or renting of the condominium unit, whether or not any consideration has been paid therefor; and in such event, the Board of Managers may require the removal of such occupant(s), it being hereby agreed that the Board of Managers, in such event, shall be entitled to the possession of the condominium unit upon demand therefor of and from such occupant, with or without notice to the record owner(s) thereof; and in the event of failure to surrender such possession, the Board of Managers may institute and maintain Forcible Entry and Detainer proceedings for the possession of such unit, and have and retain such possession until the record owner thereof, or his purchaser (in event of sale, all prerequisites of this declaration having been complied with) retakes physical possession of such premises. During any time when the Board of Managers shall have possession of such unit hereunder, the record owner and all of his guests, licensees and invitees shall be deemed to waive any claim for damages to person or property in or on the units.

The sub-leasing or sub-renting of said interest shall be subject to the same limitations as are applicable to the leasing or renting thereof. The liability of the owner under these covenants shall continue, notwithstanding the fact that he may have leased or rented said interest as provided herein.

In no case shall the right of first refusal reserved herein affect the right of an owner to subject his interest in the project parcel to a trust deed, mortgage, or other security instrument.

The failure of or refusal by the Board of Managers to exercise the right to so purchase or lease shall not constitute or be deemed to be a waiver of such right to purchase or lease when an owner receives any subsequent bonafide offer from a prospective purchaser or tenant.

The provisions of this Article 27 shall not apply to any sale lease or rental if made by Declarant at any time hereafter whether same be a "first sale or letting" or "resale or reletting" of an apartment unit. Declarant shall have the further right to use any apartment unit as office and sales area and display advertising signs at the premises at any time hereafter until all units have been sold by Declarant.

The right of first refusal, as provided herein, shall extend and run from the date of execution of this Declaration for the period of the lives of the now living descendants of H. G. Nichols, whichever of said descendants shall live the longer, plus eighteen (18) years.

Except as is otherwise provided in paragraph 28, and except upon a transfer of title to a Public Trustee, or to a first mortgagee, each grantor of a condominium unit, upon transferring or conveying his interest, shall incorporate in such instrument of conveyance an agreement that the grantee carry out the provisions of the "right of first refusal" as provided in this paragraph.

28. In the event of any default on the part of any owner under any first mortgage which entitled the holder thereof to foreclose same, any sale under such foreclosure, including delivery of a deed to the first mortgagee in lieu of such foreclosure shall be made free and clear of the provisions of paragraph 27, and the purchaser (or grantee under such deed in lieu of foreclosure) of such condominium unit shall be thereupon and thereafter subject to the provisions of this Declaration and thereafter subject to following such foreclosure sale (or grantee under deed given in lieu of such foreclosure) shall be the then holder of the first mortgage, or its nominee, the said holder or nominee may thereafter sell and convey the condominium unit free and clear of the provisions of paragraph 27, but its grantee shall thereupon and thereafter be subject to all of the provisions thereof.

The transfer of a deceased joint tenant's interest to the surviving joint tenant or the transfer of a deceased's interest to a devisee by will or his heirs at law under intestacy laws shall not be subject to the provisions of paragraph 27.

If an owner of condominium unit can establish to the satisfaction of the Managing Agent or Board of Managers that a proposed transfer is not a sale or lease, then such transfer shall not be subject to the provisions of paragraph 27.

29. Upon written request of any prospective transferor, purchaser, tenant or an existing or prospective mortgagee of any condominium unit, the Managing Agent or Board of Managers of the Association shall forthwith, or where time is specified, at the end of the time, issue a written and acknowledged certificate in recordable form, evidencing that:

(a) With respect to a proposed lease or sale under paragraph 27, that proper notice was given by the selling or leasing owner and that the remaining owners did not elect to exercise their option to purchase or lease;

(b) With respect to a deed to a first mortgagee or its nominee in lieu of foreclosure, and a deed from such first mortgagee or its nominee, pursuant to paragraph 28, that the deeds were in fact given in lieu of foreclosure and were not subject to the provisions of paragraph 27;

(c) With respect to any contemplated transfer which is not in fact a sale or lease, that the transfer is not or will not be subject to the provisions of paragraph 27;

Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the facts contained therein.

30. This Declaration hereby makes mandatory the irrevocable appointment of an attorney-in-fact to deal with the property upon its destruction or obsolescence.

Title to any condominium unit is declared and expressly made subject to the terms and conditions hereof, and acceptance by any grantee of a deed from the Declarant or from any owner shall constitute appointment of the attorney-in-fact herein provided. All of the owners irrevocably constitute and appoint the non-profit association hereinafter named, or its successor non-profit corporation, if same be hereafter organized, their true and lawful attorney in their name, place and stead, for the purpose of dealing with the property upon its destruction or obsolescence as is hereafter provided. As attorney-in-fact, the Association, by its President and Secretary, shall have full and complete authorization, right and power to make, execute and deliver any contract, deed or any other instrument with respect to the interest of a condominium unit owner which are necessary and appropriate to exercise the powers herein granted. Repair and reconstruction of the improvement(s) as used in the succeeding subparagraphs means restoring the improvement(s) to substantially the same conditions in which it existed prior to the damage, with each unit and the general and limited common elements having the same vertical and horizontal boundaries as before. The proceeds of any insurance collected shall be made available to the Association for the purpose of repair, restoration or replacements unless the owners and all first mortgagees agree not to rebuild in accordance with the provisions set forth hereinafter.

(a) In the event of damage or destruction due to fire or other disaster, the insurance proceeds, if sufficient to reconstruct the improvement(s) shall be applied by the Association, as attorney-in-fact, to such reconstruction, and the improvement(s) shall be promptly repaired and reconstructed.

(b) If the insurance proceeds are insufficient to repair and reconstruct the improvement(s), and if such damage is not more than fifty (50%) percent of all of the general common elements, not including land, such damage or destruction shall be promptly repaired and reconstructed by the Association, as attorney-in-fact, using the proceeds of insurance and the proceeds of an assessment to be made against all of the owners and their condominium units. Such deficiency assessment shall be a common expense made pro rata according to each owner's percentage interest in and to the general common elements and shall be due and payable within thirty days after written notice thereof. The Association shall have the authority to cause the repair or restoration of the improvements using all of the insurance proceeds for such purpose notwithstanding the failure of an owner to pay the assessment. The assessment provided for herein shall be a debt of each owner, and a lien on his condominium unit and may be enforced and collected as is provided in paragraph 24. In addition thereto, the Association, as attorney-in-fact, shall have the absolute right and power to sell the condominium unit of any owner refusing or failing to pay such deficiency assessment within the time provided, and if not so paid, the Association shall cause to be recorded a notice that the condominium unit of the delinquent owner shall be sold by the Association. The proceeds derived from the sale of such condominium unit shall be used and disbursed by the Association, as attorney-in-fact, in the following order:

- (1) For payment of the balance of the lien of any first mortgage.
- (2) For payment of taxes and special assessment liens in favor of any assessing entity;
- (3) For payment of unpaid common expenses;
- (4) For payment of junior liens and encumbrances in the order of and to the extent of their priority; and
- (5) The balance remaining, if any, shall be paid to the condominium unit owner.

(c) If more than fifty (50%) percent of all of the general common elements, not including land, are destroyed or damaged, and if the owners representing an aggregate ownership interest of one-half of said condominium units, or more, do not voluntarily, within one hundred days thereafter, make provision for reconstruction, which plan must have the unanimous approval or consent of every first mortgagee the Association shall forthwith record a notice setting forth such fact or facts, and upon the recording of such notice by the Association's president and secretary, the entire remaining premises shall be sold by the Association, as attorney-in-fact for all of the owners, free and clear of the provisions contained in this Declaration, the Map and the By-Laws. The insurance settlement proceeds shall be collected by the Association, and such proceeds shall be divided by the Association according to each unit owner's interest (as such interests appear on the policy or policies) and such divided proceeds shall be paid into as many separate accounts as there are units covered by this declaration, each such account representing one of the condominium units. Each such account shall be in the name of the Association, and shall be further identified by the number of the apartment unit and the name of the owner. From each separate account, the Association, as attorney-in-fact shall use and disburse the total amount (of each) of such accounts, without contribution from any account to another, toward the full payment of the lien of any first mortgage against the condominium unit represented by such separate account. There shall be added to each such account, the apportioned amount of the proceeds derived from the sale of the entire property. Such apportionment shall be based upon each condominium unit owner's percentage interest in the general common elements. The total funds of each account shall be used and disbursed, without contribution from one account to another, by the Association, as attorney-in-fact, for the same purposes and in the same order as is provided in sub-paragraph (b)(1) through (5) of this paragraph.

If the owners representing an aggregate ownership interest of three-fourths (3/4ths) of the condominium units, or more, adopt a plan for reconstruction, which plan has the unanimous approval of all first mortgagees, then all of the owners shall be bound by the terms and other provisions of such plan. Any assessment made in connection with such plan shall be a common expense and made pro rata according to each owner's percentage interest in the general common elements and shall be due and payable as provided by the terms of such plan but not sooner than thirty days after written notice thereof.

The Association shall have the authority to cause the repair or restoration of the improvements using all of the insurance proceeds for such purpose notwithstanding the failure of an owner to pay the assessment. The assessment provided for herein shall be a debt of the Association and a lien on his condominium unit and may be enforced as provided in paragraph 24.

In addition thereto, the Association, as attorney-in-fact, shall have the absolute right and power to sell the condominium unit of any owner refusing or failing to pay such assessment within the time provided, and if not so paid, the Association shall cause to be recorded a notice that the condominium unit of the delinquent owner shall be sold by the Association. The proceeds derived from sale of such condominium unit shall be used and disbursed by the Association, as attorney-in-fact, for the same purposes and in the same order as is provided in sub-paragraph(b)(1) through (5) of this paragraph.

(d) The owners representing an aggregate ownership interest of three-fourths (3/4ths) of the condominium units covered by this declaration, or more, may agree that the general common elements of the property are obsolete and that the same should be renewed or reconstructed. In such instance, then the expense thereof shall be payable by all of the owners as common expenses; provided, however, that any owner not agreeing to such renewal or reconstruction may give written notice to the Association that such unit shall be purchased by the Association for the fair market value thereof. If such owner and the Association can agree on the fair market value thereof, then such sale shall be consummated within thirty days thereafter. If the parties are unable to agree, the date when either party notified the other that he or it is unable to agree with the other shall be the "Commencing date" from which all periods of time mentioned herein shall be measured. Within ten days following the commencement date, each party shall nominate in writing (and give notice of such nomination to the other party), the appraiser who shall be a member of the Beaumont Real Estate Board, and give party fails to make such a nomination, the appraiser nominated shall within five days after default by the other party appoint and associate with him another appraiser (to be selected from the Beaumont Real Estate Board). If the two appraisers designated by the parties, or selected pursuant hereto in the event of the default of one party, are unable to agree, they shall appoint another appraiser (to be selected from the Beaumont Real Estate Board) to be the umpire between such umpire, then each appraiser previously appointed shall nominate two persons (each of whom shall be a member of the Beaumont Real Estate Board), and from the names of the four persons so nominated shall be drawn by lot by any judge of any court of record in Texas, and the name so drawn shall be the umpire. The nominations from whom the umpire is to be drawn by lot shall be submitted within ten days of the failure of the two appraisers to agree, which in any event shall not be later than twenty days following the appointment of second appraiser. The decision of the appraisers as to the fair market value or in the case of their disagreement, the decision of such umpire, shall be final and binding. The expenses and fees of such appraisers shall be borne equally by the Association and the owners. The sale shall be consummated within fifteen days thereafter, and the Association, as attorney-in-fact, shall disburse such proceeds as is provided in sub-paragraph (b)(1) through (5) of this paragraph.

(e) The owners representing an aggregate ownership interest of three-fourths (3/4ths) of the condominium units, covered by this declaration, or more, may agree that the general common elements of the property are obsolete and that the same should be sold. In such instance, the Association shall forthwith record a notice setting forth such fact or facts, and upon the recording of such notice by the Association's president and secretary, the entire premises shall be sold by the Association, as attorney-in-fact for all of the owners, free and clear of the provisions contained in this Declaration, the Map and the By-Laws. The sales proceeds shall be apportioned between the owners on the basis of each owner's percentage interest in the general common elements, and such apportioned proceeds shall be paid into as many separate accounts as there are units covered by this declaration, each such account representing one condominium unit. Each such account shall be in the name of the Association, and shall be further identified by the number of the Apartment and the name of the owner. From each separate account, the Association as attorney-in-fact, shall use and disburse the total amount (of each) of such funds, without contribution from one fund to another, for the same purposes and in the same order as is provided in subparagraph (b)(1) through (5) of this paragraph.

31. Prior to the first conveyance of any condominium unit, Declarant shall execute and deliver a bill of sale to the Association, transferring all items of personal property located on the entire premises and furnished by Declarant, which property is intended for the common use and enjoyment of the condominium unit owners and occupants. The Association shall hold title to such property for the use and enjoyment of the condominium unit owners and occupants. No owner shall have any other interest and right thereto, and all such right and interest shall absolutely terminate upon the owner's termination of possession of his condominium unit.

32. All notices, demands, or other notices intended to be served upon an owner shall be sent by ordinary or certified mail, postage prepaid, addressed in the name of such owner in care of the apartment number and building address of such owner. No Certificates of stock shall be issued by the Association, but the Board of Managers may, if it so elects, issue one membership card to the owner(s) of a condominium unit.
