

NEIGHBORHOOD ATTRactions

Stomping Grounds (Garden Oaks)

4 Best Attractions

33 1/3 @ Thirtyfourth

Stomping Grounds is a mixed-use dining, retail, and community hub in Houston's Garden Oaks neighborhood. Developed by Revive Development, it serves as a gathering place for locals and visitors with its curated mix of food, beverage, and lifestyle brands centered around a large communal green space.

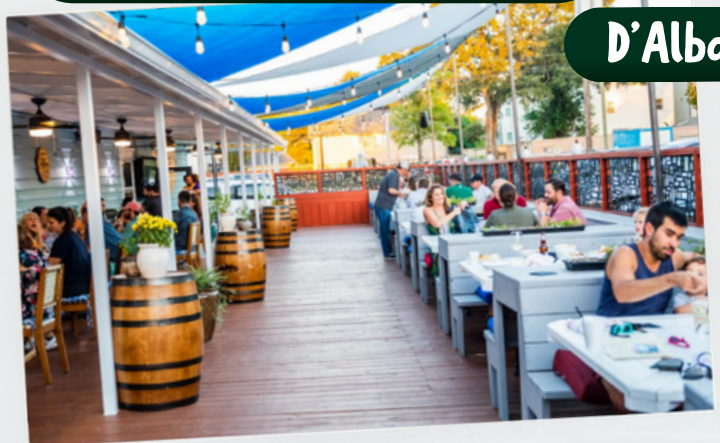

33 1/3 @ Thirtyfourth is a contemporary mixed-use development and retail complex located at 1717 W 34th St #900 in the Oak Forest-Garden Oaks area of Houston, Texas. The property brings together boutique wellness, lifestyle, and service-oriented tenants under one address, forming part of the city's growing cluster of upscale neighborhood centers.

Cottonwood

Cottonwood is a popular bar and restaurant located in Houston's Garden Oaks and Oak Forest neighborhoods. Known for its spacious outdoor patio, live music, and rotating craft-beer selection, it combines the casual feel of a local beer garden with an inventive Southern-inspired menu and a lively social atmosphere.

D'Alba

d'Alba is a modern American craft kitchen and cocktail bar located in the Garden Oaks neighborhood of Houston. Known for its laid-back yet trendy atmosphere, it features a sprawling, dog-friendly patio and a dedicated playground for children, making it a popular choice for families and groups.