

Gleannloch Farms Master-Planned Community

1. Lakeside Aquatic Complex: This place is a swimmer's paradise with a 25-yard, six-lane competition pool. Plus, there are four lighted tennis courts and a children's playground to keep everyone entertained.

2. Equestrian Center: Love horses? You're in luck! The equestrian center lets you indulge in horseback riding and equestrian events, keeping the community's rich history alive.

3. Parks and Trails: Fancy a walk or a jog? The scenic trails and beautifully landscaped parks are perfect for that. There's even a 2.5-acre "bark park" for your furry friends, complete with water fountains for both pets and humans.

4. Athletic Center: The athletic center is always buzzing with activity. Whether it's baseball, soccer, or a swim meet with the Gleannloch Gators, there's something for everyone. And trust me, watching those Gators in action is a blast!

5. Golf Course: If golf is your thing, you'll love the Gleannloch Pines Golf Club. This stunning 27-hole course, designed by Jay Riviere, offers a fantastic golfing experience. The clubhouse, with its impressive stonework and charm, is perfect for hosting events too.

6. Lakes and Boating: With over 41 acres of lakes, you can enjoy canoeing or catch-and-release fishing. It's a great way to relax and soak in the serene surroundings.

A Strong Community Vibe

Gleannloch Farms isn't just a place to live; it's a community where you'll feel right at home. Throughout the year, there are tons of events and activities to enjoy, from holiday celebrations to farmers' markets. It's a great way to meet your neighbors and make new friends.

Top-Notch Schools

If you have kids, you'll be thrilled to know that Gleannloch Farms is served by the highly-rated Klein Independent School District. The schools here are known for their academic excellence and fantastic extracurricular programs. Your kids will be in great hands!
