

Welcome

BRIDGELAND

With open spaces and familiar faces,
you'll be more connected in Bridgeland.

LOCATED IN CYPRESS, TEXAS

Bridgeland is a premier, award-winning master planned community located northwest of downtown Houston. It was developed by Howard Hughes Holdings Inc., the same developer behind The Woodlands. Designed to balance modern living with nature, Bridgeland connects people to the outdoors while prioritizing the preservation, enhancement and protection of the land it's built on.

Features include:

- 3,000* acres of open space, parks, lakes and trails
- World-class amenity centers
- 925-acre* Bridgeland Central, the community's emerging urban district for shopping, dining, retail, employment and more
- On-site schools and places of worship

BE MORE CONNECTED

Village Life

Thoughtfully planned to connect residents to each other and nature.

Bridgeland's master plan includes four distinct villages as well as residential options in Bridgeland Central — the community's urban mixed-use hub. Each is an integral part of the community's thoughtful design and inspires residents to connect to each other and nature in daily life. In every village, parks and playgrounds, pool complexes, schools, employment, worship and shopping are accessible on foot or by bike. Each village offers a wide range of housing options, from conventional and modern styles to custom designs. Home prices in Bridgeland range from the low $300s to $2M+.

BRIDGELAND CENTRAL

Bridgeland Central is a 925-acre emerging urban district redefining Northwest Houston with a vibrant mix of office, retail, dining, medical and entertainment alongside single-family and multifamily homes—all designed for a connected, walkable lifestyle. Village Green at Bridgeland Central, a 70-acre mixed-use development and the first of many planned for the district, is rapidly expanding. Lakeland Village Center, the community's first retail site, is well established, and Parkland Village Center is coming soon. New homes in the Southbridge, Easthaven and Emerald Heights neighborhoods are now selling.

Hillside Park

Terrapin Park

PARKLAND VILLAGE

Inspired by Prairie School-style architecture and designed to feel like living in a park, Parkland Village—the second village to open in Bridgeland—seamlessly blends natural landscapes with thoughtfully crafted homes and strong neighborhood connections. Residents enjoy abundant parks and open space, anchored by the 25-acre Dragonfly Park featuring a lazy river, beach-entry pool, lap pool, fitness center, event lawn, playground and sprayground, tennis and pickleball courts, dog park, kayak launch, and miles of hike and bike trails. A future village center will bring restaurants, retail and professional services to the community.

CREEKLAND VILLAGE

Creekland Village, Bridgeland's fourth and newest residential village, draws inspiration from neighboring Cypress Creek and fosters a seamless connection between residents, nature and water. More than half the village—54%—is dedicated to greenspace, parks and trails, including a future extension of the Cypress Creek Nature Trail. Approximately 3,000 homesites, ranging from 28- to 50-foot lots and including townhomes, offer diverse design options. Like the other villages, Creekland will feature world-class amenities and creative play parks, with Terrapin Park opening in summer 2026 and a future village center planned for restaurants, retail and professional services.

Bridgeland Central

Bridgeland's 925-acre emerging urban district*

LOCATED IN THE HEART OF BRIDGELAND

It's an exciting time for Bridgeland as Bridgeland Central, the community's 925-acre urban district, continues to attract a variety of local and national businesses to Northwest Houston. Bridgeland Central will be among the most vibrant urban districts in the country, serving nearly 70,000 current and future residents of Bridgeland as well as the broader Northwest Houston region with best-in-class office, retail, medical, dining, hospitality, entertainment, multifamily residential and parks/open space. Residents and visitors will benefit from a wide array of goods and services in a stylish, community-focused, urban, walkable atmosphere. Howard Hughes' goal of creating 1.5 jobs per household will cultivate a thriving commercial center with approximately 30,000 jobs — making Bridgeland a great place to live and work.

Onsite mixed-use development

VILLAGE GREEN AT BRIDGELAND CENTRAL

Village Green at Bridgeland Central is a 70-acre mixed-use development, the first of many planned for the 925-acre urban district, Bridgeland Central. Anchored by a 100,000+- square-foot H-E-B, Village Green has an environmentally focused, modern agrarian design with inline retail opportunities for restaurants and shops and is within walking distance for many residents. Current tenants include Advanced Orthopaedics & Sports Medicine, Bridgeland Welcome Center, CrossCover Insurance, Gelato & Co., H-E-B, H-E-B Fuel, Howard Hughes, JETSET Modern Pilates, Jonathan's The Rub, Memorial Hermann GoHealth UrgentCare, Original Crust Pizza, P.
